With Loving Hands... So often we are defined by the work that we do to make a living. Unpaid work or volunteer work is almost invisible, even though its value to families and to our society is immense. Work done in the home, such as rearing children, is invisible and is not counted in the gross national product, the official evaluation of productivity of our society. The work of rearing children, of guiding adolescents, of donating blood, helping in libraries, delivering meals to seniors, raising funds for not-for-profit organizations, and so on, is coming up short as people are pressed to give more and more of their time and energy to paid jobs. Our "job" is what we do, but our "vocation" is who we are. We are called to serve others, to help those who need us in a variety of situations. We aren't all called to the same work, or the same amount of work. We give what we have, according to our abilities, in fidelity to the call each of us received. Our vocation to serve others is rooted in our baptism. How we live our call is a matter of individual gifts and "talents." Even if our work is unpaid or unappreciated, it is valuable in God's eyes. Work done "with loving hands" is worthwhile and good, even if it is invisible to those who decide what is economically valuable.

Come, Share Your Master's Joy... We may not work at what society calls a "full-time job" (defined as being paid). Anyone who cares for children or for ill or frail family members would be grateful if the work ended after a "normal" number of work hours! Work done for love and for the good of another is work indeed, and its payment will be in a different currency. Our call to serve is a call to love, and the payment is joy in God's presence and in the knowledge that the reign of God is being brought closer each day by the work of our hands. Our ultimate call will be to share in our Master's joy.

Saturday Masses begin on Saturday, December 6th at 5:00 in the afternoon. Our winter visitors are returning so we must add another Mass to our schedule. Saturday Masses are all in English.

Autumn is the season for harvesting and sharing the fruits of our labors. This week's scriptures use images of the harvest, family life, pregnancy, and investment to describe the abundant harvest in the reign of God. We discover that sharing the gifts we have been given brings eternal rewards for everyone. In the Gospel parable a master entrusts his possessions to three servants before going on a journey. Each is given some talents. What they do with these talents determines what the master will do with them when he returns. How about us? What are we doing with our talents? How will our Master treat us when he returns?

Con Manos Amorasas

Con frecuencia se nos define según el trabajo que hacemos para ganarnos la vida. El trabajo gratis o voluntario es casi invisible, a pesar de que su valor para nuestras familias y para nuestra sociedad es inmenso. El trabajo hecho en casa, como criar los hijos, no cuenta en el producto nacional bruto, en la evaluación oficial de productividad de nuestra sociedad. No existe suficiente ayuda para trabajos tales como criar los hijos, guiar adolescents, donar sangre, ayudar en las bibliotecas, repartir comidas a los ancianos, solicitar fondos para organizaciones sin fines de lucro, y demás, pues las personas se sienten presionadas a tener que dedicar más y más tiempo y energía a trabajos remunerados. Nuestro "trabajo" es lo que hacemos, pero nuestra "vocación" es lo que somos. Somos llamados a servir a los demás, a ayudar a quienes nos necesitan en diversas situaciones. No todos somos llamados al mismo trabajo, o a la misma cantidad de trabajo. Damos lo que tenemos, de acuerdo a nuestras habilidades, fieles al llamado que cada cual recibe. Nuestra vocación de servir a los demás está arraigada en nuestro bautismo. Cómo vivimos nuestro llamado depende de nuestros dones y "talentos" personales. Aun si nuestro trabajo no es remunerado ni apreciado, es valioso a los ojos de Dios. El trabajo ejecutado "con manos amorosas" es meritorio y bueno, aunque sea invisible para quienes deciden lo que es valioso económicamente. © Copyright JS Paluch Co

Ven, Comparte la Felicidad de tu Maestro

Quizás no tenemos un "trabajo de tiempo completo" (que se define como remunerado). ¡Ya desearía quienquiera que cuide a sus hijos o a un miembro enfermo o débil de la familia, que su trabajo terminara después de un determinado número de horas "normales"! El trabajo hecho por amor y por el bien de otros es ciertamente trabajo y su remuneración será de diferente moneda. Nuestro llamado a servir es un llamado a amar y el pago es el gozo de la presencia de Dios y de saber que el reino de Dios se acerca más cada día gracias al trabajo de nuestras manos.
