

Heed The Warning

In answering God's call to be a prophet, Ezekiel took on a serious duty. Just as the watchman sounded a trumpet to warn the citizens of impending danger, so was it the prophet's responsibility to warn the people to repent. If the townsfolk ignored the watchman's trumpet and were taken by the enemy, the watchman was not to blame. Yet in the task of warning the people, the watchman was responsible for the welfare of the entire community. In the same way, the prophet only needed to deliver the message. What the listeners did upon receiving it was their own choice. Nevertheless, the prophet's responsibility to the community was clear. To shirk that duty would be a disservice to all. In Paul's letter to the Romans, he tells us to go beyond the letter of God's law to its heart, which is love. What the fourth through the tenth commandments really challenge us to do is love our neighbor. As Paul points out and as the Gospel clarifies, we cannot do this passively or by choosing not to get involved.

A Responsible Christian... Loving one another is not easy to do. There will always be those whose actions damage and disrupt the community and cause harm to the world at large. It is our responsibility to challenge those actions and shed the light of the gospel on them, but to do so in a loving way. In a culture where public sentiment can run strong, demonstrating such restraint and respect may feel like swimming upstream. Yet today's Gospel invites us not to condemn out of hand, but to engage in a dialogue with the offender that can result in conversion and change. To fail to do so is to shrink from our Christian responsibility. In the light of today's Gospel, what do you think could be the appropriate Christian responses to the many different actions of relatives, friends, fellow citizens, and government authorities in the past year? © Copyright JS Paluch Company

Atención a la Advertencia

Al responder a la llamada de Dios a ser profeta, Ezequiel aceptó una responsabilidad seria. Así como el centinela tocaba la trompeta para avisar a los ciudadanos acerca de un peligro inminente, así era la responsabilidad del profeta advertir a la gente que se arrepintieran. Si los habitantes del pueblo ignoraban el anuncio del centinela y caían en manos del enemigo, el centinela no era culpable. Sin embargo, en su tarea de prevenir al pueblo, el centinela era responsable de la seguridad de toda la comunidad. Del mismo modo, el profeta sólo necesitaba anunciar el mensaje. Lo que los oyentes hicieran al recibir el anuncio era cuestión de ellos. Sin embargo, la responsabilidad del profeta ante la comunidad era clara. Eludir ese deber perjudicaría a todos. En su carta a los romanos, Pablo nos dice que debemos ir más allá de la letra y llegar al corazón de la ley de Dios, que es el amor. Los mandamientos, desde el cuarto hasta el décimo, realmente son un reto a amar a nuestro prójimo. Como señala Pablo y lo clarifica el evangelio, esto no lo podemos hacer pasivamente ni sin comprometernos.

"Si dos de Ustedes se ponen De acuerdo para pedir algo, sea lo que fuere, mi Padre celestial se los concederá". —Mateo 18:19

Un Cristiano Responsable

Amarnos los unos a los otros no es fácil. Siempre habrá seres cuyas acciones dañan y perturban a la comunidad, y perjudican al mundo entero. Es nuestra responsabilidad retar esas acciones y hacer brillar sobre ellas la luz del evangelio, pero hacerlo con amor. En una cultura en que el sentir público tiende a ser fuerte, demostrar control de sí mismo o respeto puede ser como nadar contra la corriente. Pero el evangelio de hoy nos invita a no condenar de inmediato, sino a establecer un diálogo con quien nos ofende, para que pueda resultar en conversión y cambio. No hacerlo así es evadir nuestra responsabilidad cristiana. A la luz del evangelio de hoy, ¿cuál crees tú que debe ser la respuesta cristiana apropiada, frente a las diferentes acciones de parientes, amigos, conciudadanos y autoridades gubernamentales durante el año pasado?

"Nacimos para amar, vivimos para amar y moriremos para amar más todavía" Joseph Cafasio

Need to sharpen your skills on praying the Liturgy of the Hours? Want to learn how to pray the Liturgy of the Hours? On September 13, Deacon Andy Corder will lead a class in "How to Pray The Liturgy of the Hours."
