COME FOLLOW ME

“What must I do to inherit eternal life?”

Jesus’ response to the rich young man reveals an understanding of what God’s kingdom is all about. What we do here on earth is simply a rehearsal for the life to come. In God’s kingdom, there is no suffering, no poverty, no injustice. What we do with the gift of our earthly lives must focus on doing our part to establish that kind of kingdom here on earth. We do not have to look far to realize that this world is in need of change. Like the rich young man, we all strive to keep the commandments. Like him, we, too, are asked to do much more, most of the time in small ways, in our families, neighborhoods, schools, and the workplace. The first step is to live a life of awareness—we need to attune ourselves to opportunities for doing our part to alleviate suffering and injustice. We live in hope that when we arrive at heaven’s door, what awaits us there will not be something completely surprising. What we hope to find is a kingdom of which we had a foretaste while we were here on earth.

Palabras de Sabiduría

Hoy aprendemos en la primera lectura que el espíritu de la sabiduría llega a los que lo invocan. La sabiduría, como la Palabra de Dios, lleva un mensaje de consuelo y a la vez constituye un gran desafío. La carta a los hebreos nos cuenta que la Palabra de Dios, que está empapada con la sabiduría de Dios, es “más penetrante que una espada de dos filos”. No podemos acobardarnos ante la sabiduría de Dios ni ante la palabra que tiene el poder de penetrar nuestro corazón y mente. Jesús, la Palabra viva de Dios, la encarnación de la sabiduría, le dice cosas fuertes y muy penetrantes al joven rico que acude a Jesús en busca de respuestas a sus dudas más profundas. Jesús declaró: “Es más fácil que un camello pase por el ojo de la aguja, que un rico entre en el Reino de Dios” (Marcos 10:25). El ojo de la aguja era una puerta baja y estrecha por la cual pasaba toda la gente común a Jerusalén. Jesús no niega la entrada al cielo a los ricos, basta que hagan lo que hace el camello para pasar: despojarse de su carga.

Burial Cloth of Jesus or Hoax? A linen cloth kept for hundreds of years in a cathedral in Turin, Italy is recognized by scientists as the most studied artifact in human history. Known as The Shroud of Turin, many believe it is the burial cloth of Jesus Christ while others insist that it is nothing more than a clever medieval fraud. Both sides of the issue will be fully explored in a presentation entitled, “Trial of the Shroud of Turin” on Saturday, October 17th, 3-5 pm at Fr. Kino’s Corner located at 2716 S Kolb Rd, in Tucson. Seating is limited so please call to reserve your seat (520-790-4033).

For advertising in the back of the bulletin please call Claudia Borders at 289-1265.
