

Becoming Obedient...

The words of the prophet Isaiah ring out with great clarity about the suffering of God's anointed One: "Morning after morning he opens my ear that I may hear; and I have not rebelled" (Isaiah 50:4-5). To "obey" means to listen and to heed. Jesus, the Suffering Servant of Isaiah, sets his face "like flint, knowing that [he] shall not be put to shame" Relying on God, attentive and obedient to what he has heard, he submits to the worst that human beings can endure. To The Point of Death... Jesus' obedience, his listening to God's voice in his life, led to prophetic deeds and finally to his death. His humility consisted not in grasping at equality with God, but embracing human life in all its fullness, including death. There is nothing human that Jesus did not share with us except sin. Pain, suffering, joy, laughter, humiliation, and sorrow: he willingly accepted all of these in order to be one with us and to make us one with God, as he was one with God. In our lives, we do not know where we are going. It's in faith that we can follow Christ wherever he may lead us, trusting that death is not the end, nor evil the victor.

La Pasión... El contraste entre la lectura procesional de la liturgia de hoy y la proclamación de la pasión es asombroso. Allí vemos cuán profundamente la palabra de Dios se cumple en Jesús. Primero Jesús debe ser escogido como el Mesías, el que viene en el nombre del Señor. Debe ser reconocido por todos, aunque no sepan lo que están diciendo. Todos piensan que es el rey prometido; un rey terrenal de los judíos que los librerá de la ocupación romana. No comprenden todavía, ni siquiera los discípulos, exactamente a dónde se dirige su procesión triunfal. Nosotros tampoco sabemos a dónde vamos en nuestra vida. En la fe seguimos a Cristo dondequiera que nos guie, porque estamos seguros de que la muerte no es el final y el mal no será el vencedor.
