

Certain religious groups have taken the banning of prayer to public schools as a threat to the expression of religion in public life. They have successfully lobbied many state and local governments to display the Ten Commandments in public buildings. Some claim that the commandments represent the moral and legal foundation of American society, showing “what this country stands for.” Yet no one is advocating the public display of Jesus’ words about loving God and neighbor. Which is easier to do? Keep the rules, or love someone you dislike or even hate? Jesus says love your enemies, especially the personal ones: the colleague who got the big promotion, the daughter who promised not to drink but is arrested for DUI, the husband who has affairs, the company that scammed you out of hard earned dollars. When we hear the One on the throne say “I make all things new” (Revelation 21:5), we are invited into a new world order in which we center our lives not only on rules, but on loving the unlovable. We can only call ourselves Christ’s disciples if we love people as he loved—warts and all—and then let go of the grudges and hatreds.

“Behold, God’s dwelling is with the human race.”
 —Revelation 21:3

Mayo Es Mes de María.. Unáanse con nosotros a rezar un rosario cada domingo de mayo a las 10:30 en honor a nuestra Santísima Madre María.
May is the Month of Mary.. Please come join us in praying the rosary in honor of our Holy Mother Mary every Sunday in May at 10:30 before Mass begins.

Cuando limpiamos, reparamos o restauramos los objetos que poseemos, a menudo decimos “casi como nuevo”. Esto, según el libro del Apocalipsis, es lo que ocurre con cualquier cosa que está llena de la Gloria de Dios. Cuando la Biblia emplea la palabra “nuevo” no es un mero “diferente, mejorado” (como suelen decir los avisos comerciales), sino que acarrea un nuevo sentido de algo que ha sido transformado tan plena y completamente que ahora resulta casi irreconocible. Nuestro mundo está lleno de lágrimas, muerte, dolor, sed y oscuridad; pero el nuevo mundo—el nuevo cielo y la nueva tierra que trae la resurrección de Cristo—está lleno de gozo, vida eterna, gloria, agua viva y luz. Como observara San Pablo en la segunda carta a la iglesia de Corinto, si estamos en Cristo, entonces somos una nueva creación. Y aquellos discípulos que son también una nueva creación, que viven en el nuevo cielo y la nueva tierra que trae Cristo, también son los diarios practicantes del nuevo mandamiento de amarse unos a otros con el amor transformador y renovador que Cristo nos ha ortogado.
