

Jesus asks his disciples “Who do you say that I am?” (Luke 9:20). Peter replies that Jesus is the Messiah, the anointed one of God. Jesus’ question is one that we have to answer for ourselves if we are to live as his disciples today. It is easy to avoid a direct answer, just following the rules and saying the right prayers, without ever facing this question. Marianne lives in a small town. “I’d heard this passage many times before, but one day in parish Bible study it was as if I were hearing it for the first time. Driving home, I knew Jesus was the one whom God had sent into this world for me. I knew there would be consequences! No more teasing my friend about her “What would Jesus do?” bracelet!” she said, “I’ll be asking myself this question all the time.” Challenges remain for Marianne: she cares for her elderly mother and copes with diabetes, but she says, “I trust in God more and I’m more open with other people than ever before.” Is Jesus the center of your life? If not, why not?

June 24th—The time arrived for Elizabeth to have her child, a son. Everyone said he should be named Zechariah after his father, but Elizabeth said his name shall be John. Zechariah agreed and immediately his tongue was freed and he spoke blessings to God.

Follow in the Footsteps of Christ...

The great fifty-day celebration of Easter has concluded, as have the feasts honoring the Holy Trinity and the Body and Blood of Christ. Last week we began a long stretch of Ordinary Time that will bring us to late November. Saint Paul tells us today that those who are baptized “have clothed yourselves with Christ.”

This scripture is echoed in the Church’s baptism ritual when we sing, “You have put on Christ, in him you have been baptized.” This message is inspiring and sobering at the same time, for in today’s Gospel, we get to the heart of what means to be clothed in Christ. The Lord tells us, “If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me” (Luke 9:23). For the next twenty-two weeks we are called to take up the cross and, with Saint Luke as our guide, follow in the footsteps of Christ.

Jesús le pregunta a sus discípulos: “Según ustedes, ¿quién soy yo?” (Lucas 9:20). Pedro responde que Jesús es el Mesías, el ungido de Dios. La pregunta de Jesús también la debemos contestar nosotros si hemos de vivir como discípulos suyos. Es fácil evadir una respuesta directa, conformarnos con cumplir las reglas y decir las oraciones correctas sin confrontar esa pregunta. Mariana vive en un pueblo pequeño. “He oído este pasaje muchas veces, pero un día durante un estudio bíblico en la parroquia fue como si lo escuchara por primera vez. Manejando de regreso a casa, caí en cuenta de que Jesús es el enviado de Dios para mí. ¡Y sabía que esto me iba a traer consecuencias! Ya no me iba a reír más de mi amiga con su brazaletes con la inscripción, ‘¿Qué haría Jesús?’”, pues yo misma me estare haciendo esa pregunta todo el tiempo”, dice Mariana. Los desafíos continúan para Mariana, ya que aparte de sufrir de diabetes cuida también de su mamá anciana. Pero dice ella: “Ahora confío más en Dios y estoy más abierta que nunca a los demás”. ¿Es Jesús el centro de tu vida? Si no es así, ¿por qué no?

Seguir Los Pasos a Cristo

La gran celebración de cincuenta días de la Pascua ha concluido, al igual que las fiestas en honor a la Santísima Trinidad y al Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo. La semana pasada comenzamos el largo tramo del Tiempo Ordinario que nos llevará hasta el final de noviembre. San Pablo nos dice hoy que los que han sido bautizados “se han revistido de Cristo” (Gálatas 3:27). Este mensaje es inspirador y al mismo tiempo nos alecciona, ya que en el Evangelio de hoy, vamos al centro de lo que significa estar revestidos de Cristo. El Señor nos dice, “si alguno quiere acompañarme, que no se busque a sí mismo, que tome su cruz de cada día y me siga” (Lucas 9:23). Durante las veinte y dos semanas que siguen somos llamados a tomar la cruz y, con San Lucas como guía, seguir en los pasos a Cristo.
