

Follow Faithfully... When Elijah calls Elisha to follow him, Elisha goes back, momentarily, to finish some business at home. But note that he does not leave the work to be done by those at home, nor does he plan to come back and finish it himself. He recognizes in Elijah's call that he must follow faithfully and not look back. Psalm 16 celebrates the loving protection of God for those who depend on God's love and mercy. God is our portion and cup, in a line seen by Christians as a poetic reference to Eucharist, and God will not abandon us to death and corruption, but will call us into the holy Presence forever. This could be seen as resurrection, something that was not universally believed in the days before Jesus. We are assured that if we go forth in confidence to follow God's daily call, we will not be shamed or abandoned, but will find the life we seek.

Attention Business Owners: Church members want to do business with people they can trust—namely their fellow parishioners. Advertising in the bulletin helps parishioners who are business owners reach a very loyal audience. Studies show that 68% of households surveyed, when making a choice between two businesses, are inclined to choose the one that advertised in the bulletin. Potential new customers are sitting right next to you in church. On next Sunday, July 4, we ask that you bring your business card to Mass and place in the offering basket. A representative from our bulletin printer will contact you regarding advertising in our weekly bulletin. Thank you for your consideration.

Mixed Message... Words are funny things. Over time they can change meaning. Take diversity. It used to mean opposite, different. Human reactions to difference range from suspicion to violence. As our world has shrunk we try to make diversity into a positive thing. One Catholic parish, with many new Spanish and Vietnamese parishioners, described diversity in glowing terms in its mission statement. A parishioner commented that as actually practiced there, diversity still meant separate activities in worship, faith formation, community involvement, and giving. Some parishioners said to the pastor: "Those people don't give their fair share" (meaning money). Saint Paul calls this "biting and devouring one another" (Galatians 5:15). He reminds us that the greatest commandment is to love our neighbor as ourselves. That's a challenge when we find it difficult to get along with family and friends. But as Christ's disciples, everyone in our parish is a brother or sister in Christ. Everyone. No exceptions.

Mensaje Contradictorio... Las palabras son un tanto curiosas, pues, en el transcurso del tiempo, pueden cambiar de significado. Tomemos el ejemplo de la palabra diversidad, que originalmente significaba lo que es opuesto y diferente. Las reacciones humanas frente a las diferencias van desde la sospecha hasta la violencia. Mas, debido a que nuestro mundo se ha achicado, tratamos de hacer la diversidad algo positivo. Una parroquia católica con muchos nuevos miembros hispanos y vietnamitas describió la diversidad en terminos elogiosos al escribir su declaración de misión. Un parroquiano comentó que en la práctica la diversidad en la parroquia aun significaba actividades separadas en la liturgia, la formación de fe, los esfuerzos comunitarios y la colecta. Algunos de los parroquianos le dijeron al párroco: “Esa gente no da lo justo” (refiriéndose al dinero). San Pablo dice que estos parroquianos “se muerden y devoran mutuamente” (Gálatas 5:15). Él nos recuerda que el mandamiento más importante es amar al prójimo como a uno mismo. Eso nos presenta un reto cuando se nos hace difícil llevarnos bien con familiares y amigos. Pero, como discípulos de Cristo, todos y cada uno en nuestra parroquia son nuestros hermanos y hermanas, en Cristo. Todos, sin excepción.

June 29th — Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles

Today we celebrate the lives of Saints Peter and Paul, who blazed the way for the Gospel in the early Church. Each in his way, answered Christ's question: “Who do you say that I am?” It is the same question that Jesus asks each of us. What is your answer? And what does it mean for your life?

“Ahora tenemos estas tres virtudes: la fe, la esperanza, y el amor; pero el amor es la mayor de las tres”. 1 Corintios 13:13
